The Teacher/Student Excuses!

- ‘I’m afraid I’m just not a linguist/scientist/artist/musician, Ms.’
- ‘You squeezed every ounce out of me at GCSE. There’s nothing left!!’
- ‘Give me some decent teachers, and I’ll give you some decent results!’
- ‘Well we can’t expect too much of them. They come from such difficult backgrounds.’
- ‘The step up in my subject is massive.’

- Vision: Knowing what I want to achieve
- Effort: My ability/willingness to work hard
- Systems: My ability to organise my time
- Practice: Putting my skills into practice
- Attitude: Respond positively to setbacks

The Low Vision Student

Characterised by listlessness, boredom, low-level anxiety, exasperation and a tendency to procrastinate

The Low Effort Student

Characterised by:

1. Satisfaction
2. Contentment
3. Oblivious to levels of hard work put in by others
4. Poor sleep/late waking
5. Misses deadlines
6. Disorganised
7. Loses work
8. Pedestrian pace

The High Vision student does these consistently:

- Asks questions
- Staying behind after class
- Makes connections with previous learning
- Inquires curiously and enthusiastically
- Understands the role and value of the subject
- Gathers and does past exam papers
- Reads outside the subject

The High Vision student does these consistently:

- Attends all lessons – prepared
- Studies privately during non-contact lessons
- Asks teachers for more work
- Doesn't make excuses
- Reads HW feedback and puts it into practice
- Uses HW as an opportunity to mature as a student
- Watches the news and current affairs

The Beths ethos instils the attributes of selflessness and service. Our Enrichment programme also provides ample opportunities for students to show initiative and independence, co-operation and teamwork.

Beths remains committed to traditional A Levels, the gold standard of the education system. With 33 courses to choose from, we offer the largest selection in the locality. We also give you more teaching time than other schools.

Studying A Levels allows you to focus on the subjects that really interest you; they also help you to develop a deeper knowledge, understanding and intellectual curiosity about each of the subjects you choose.

The deadline for you to complete and submit your application is 4pm 31st January 2019.

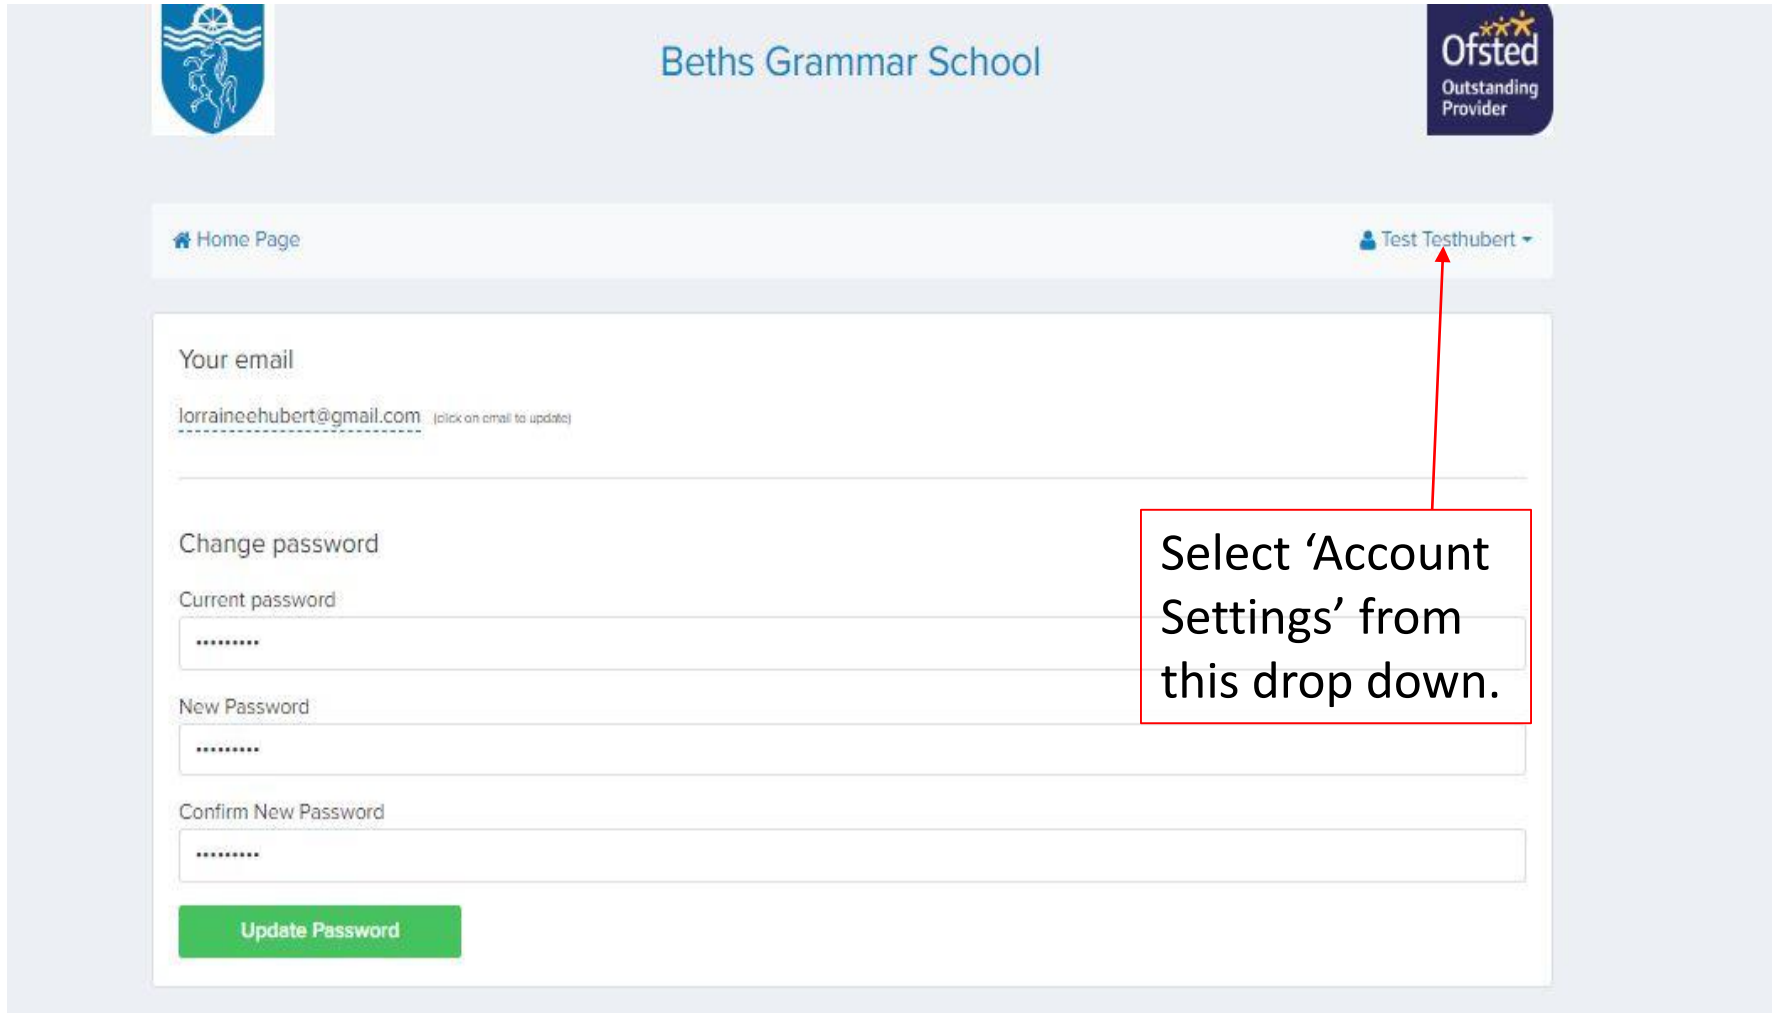

Please take a moment to look at the application/events calendar below, so that you are aware in advance what the timeline for your application is and the dates you will need to be available to attend important events.

Make sure you have completed all personal details accurately, particularly your email address, as all correspondence/contact will be made with you via email. For this reason, you should also add sixthform@beths.bexley.sch.uk to your 'safe' contacts list.

Once submitted, please regularly check your inbox and act on any messages as quickly as possible.

Decisions on applications will be made to all applicants simultaneously at the end of the spring term (Easter break). All decisions, including conditional offers, will be made via email.
