Year 12 Handbook and Summer Tasks

Instructions

This booklet contains clear information about starting your A level in Drama & Theatre. Please read it carefully before starting in September.

Please complete all of the tasks set in this booklet before beginning your A-Level course in September.

The tasks are divided into two sections: (1) Set Texts, (2) Practitioner/Theatre Company Research and (3) Wider Reading.

If you have any questions or issues, please email:

Ms Monteith – msmonteith@beths.bexley.sch.uk

Eduqas A Level Drama & Theatre

You will study five different plays. The texts chosen will represent a range of genres and practitioners and social, historical and cultural contexts. The course is examined over three Components:

Component 1: Theatre Workshop

- You take part in the creation, development and performance of a piece of theatre based on a reinterpretation of an extract from a play text.
- The piece must be developed using the techniques and working methods of either an influential theatre practitioner or a recognised theatre company.
- You will produce:
 - A realisation of the performance or design
 - A creative log.

ASSESSED: Spring of Y12

Internally assessed

externally moderated

Component 2: Text in action

- Take part in the development and performance of two pieces of theatre based on a stimulus supplied by the board:
 1. A devised piece using the techniques and working methods of either an influential theatre practitioner or a recognised theatre company (a different practitioner or company to that chosen for Component 1)
 2. An extract from a text in a different style chosen by you.
- You will realise your performance live for the visiting examiner.
- You will produce a process and evaluation report within one week of completion of the practical work.

Resources and equipment

Drama lessons will combine practical and theoretical study. For that reason you should be ready to work actively and physically, so your sixth form smart business dress will often be too restrictive. You may need to think about what you wear on the days you have your Practical Drama lessons.

You will require the following equipment:

- Two A4 ring binders, one for Components 1 and 2 and another for Component 3
- Dividers for your ring binders
- Your drama journal - we will give you this in your first lesson

Reading List

A student of Drama & Theatre Studies who is working at C or above is a student who has embraced the necessity of independent learning. This reading list is a guide to some of the key texts, both plays and drama theory, which will expand your understanding and allow you to show knowledge and creativity in the exam components. You will always be expected to be reading something to improve your knowledge and understanding.

Your tasks

(1) Set Texts

Begin working through the set texts for Hedda Gabler, Accidental Death of an Anarchist and Curious Incident. This will include getting the plays and reading them. Compile your detailed research in your Comp 3 folder.

Remember - doing research as an A Level student requires you to work harder and dig deeper than you ever did for GCSE. You also need to understand what you are finding out about, so don't assume that copying and pasting material will help you. Read it and understand it. If you don't understand something then contact your drama teacher for help.

(2) Theatre practitioner or theatre company research

Knowledge and understanding of practitioners underpins the whole course. You will need to choose your own practitioners and apply them to the practical and theoretical work in all three components.

Choose one practitioner from list A and another practitioner or company from list B

List A - dead, white men	List B - contemporary
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Stanislavski ● Brecht ● Artaud 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Steven Berkoff ● Frantic Assembly ● Forced Entertainment

Use a variety of sources, books, videos and websites to complete these sections:

1. Write a biography of the person, company or individuals in the company
2. Look into the social, historical, cultural and political context that their work existed or exists in:

List A - dead, white men	List B - contemporary
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Social - what was society like at that time ● Historical - what major events shaped the age ● Cultural - what artistic, cultural, literary and theatrical trends were prevalent ● Political - the government and politics of the time 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Social - what is society like, what cultural concerns or themes are shaping their work? ● Historical - what recent world events might be influencing their work? ● Cultural - current trends ● Political - the political landscape which shaped their work

3. Conventions of their theatrical style or genre
4. Contemporaneous and contemporary productions of their work - how has their work been received? Find reviews and accounts.
5. What other practitioners influenced them and who was influenced in turn by their work?
6. Rehearsal techniques, devising methods and exercises they use.

Present your findings as an A3 poster. It should have clear headings and include relevant pictures, imagery, text and keywords. Be Creative!

(3) Wider Reading

Throughout the course, you will need to be familiar with current theatrical trends, artistic movements and theatre news. Read and collect relevant articles, reviews and comment pieces, and complete your notes in a table like the one below.

Date of reading	Article Details What the article is called, Where you read it; name of newspaper, online link address, author, etc	Relevance/Key Points What you found out/important information

Useful resources online include:

The Guardian, stage: <https://www.theguardian.com/stage>

The Independent, theatre: <https://www.independent.co.uk/topic/Theatre>

BBC Radio 4, Front Row: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b006qsq5>

Other resources, such as The Times and The Stage are good, but are behind a paywall.

Whilst still in lock down The National Theatre, The Old Vic, Andrew Lloyd Webber and the BBC (plus others) are all using online platforms to stream free live theatre shows. Try and watch as many as you can whilst they are still available and after each show make notes on all the different aspects from the acting to the technical.
