

Beths First Online Chess Tournament

Friday 14 May, saw the Parents Association first online chess tournament. Featuring William J., an ex Beths student and international level player, nearly 30 players (a mixture of parents and students) battled it out online to secure a good ranking on the leader board.

Some players who are new to the game got to learn playing at home with family to help. After house points were allocated to each player, the house scores were as follows:

Abbey – 9	Brampton – 9
Cray – 19	Eardley – 17
Hurst – 7	Wickham – 2

Congratulations Cray!!!!

What players said:

“It is a fantastic event which I enjoyed”.
