Dear Parents and Carers,

Phase 2 PSHCE Consultation We are currently in phase 2 of developing our PSHCE education curriculum and invite you to take part in our second parental consultation on this important work. Following the first consultation which took place in summer 2019 we wrote a Personal, Social, Health, Citizenship and Economics education syllabus bespoke for the students at Beths Grammar School. Now having taught most of the new syllabus, we would like to have further feedback from parents. This is important due to the sensitive nature of some of the content and our commitment to working in close partnership with our parent community.

It is important that our curriculum is politically neutral while supporting the needs of all the young people here at Beths grow into successful and happy individuals. In addition, please understand that we are an extremely diverse community so any syllabus is unlikely to be perfect for all parents; consequently the syllabus seeks to tread a middle path in terms of the values within our wonderful community.

Please can you look at the PSHCE curriculum for Years 7-11 found here?

In addition, please look at our Sex and Relationships policy here:

After looking at the above policies, please can you provide this very short 3 question survey expressing your views.

Many thanks for your support.

Best regards

Mr D O'Regan
Deputy Headteacher
