Dear Parents/Carers,

Year 11 Change in Examination Leave for Trial Examinations – Monday 29th November return to normal lessons

Due to a change in the original examination timetable, it is now the case that most students have examinations up until Friday of this week. Consequently it has been raised that it is unfair to return to normal lessons while some big examinations are still to take place. In order to be fair to the students who have worked so hard and been immaculately focused, the school has made the decision to extend exam leave to accommodate these final examinations.

As such all Year 11 students will remain on study leave until the end of Friday 26th November. This means that they can continue to study at home on Friday morning if they do not have an exam until the afternoon; and if they have finished their exams on Friday morning, they can return home after their final exam.

Please let me know if this change is not convenient for your family and I can arrange for your child to study in school on Thursday and Friday of this week. If you would like to take advantage of this offer please email me directly on mroregan@beths.bexley.sch.uk

Apologies for the short notice and thank you, as always, for your support.

Best regards,

Mr D O'Regan
Deputy Headteacher
