Early/additional GCSE and A level Entries in Languages

- At Beths, we recognise and value the importance of learning languages.
- The school is willing to support students who are native speakers in a European or Community language to sit a GCSE or A level exam.
- We do not allow students to sit an external examination at GCSE earlier than Year 10 and A level earlier than Year 12.
- We strongly advise for one examination sitting only and the school will be prepared to fund examination fees for written papers at the first sitting only. If a student wishes to take another sitting, e.g in Year 11, then they will have to incur the cost for examination fees.

- The school will not provide tuition for this subject and it will be expected that students are receiving appropriate tuition outside school privately or through a community hub in readiness for an external examination.
- We reserve the right to request to assess students to ascertain their level before they take the external examination. Where this is not possible we will ask for validated assessment evidence that a student is ready to sit the appropriate external examination. This will help to provide robust evidence for suitability and readiness to take an external examination.
- The Modern Foreign Languages department will be able to support students with speaking skills assessment for external examinations for the languages we currently offer at Beths and the exam officer will contact students/parents to discuss. Where this is not possible the exam officer will liaise with parents to contract a specialist assessor to conduct speaking exams and this may incur additional cost which parents will be expected to meet. We will endeavour to provide a suitable facility and the necessary equipment to facilitate the speaking exams.
